YOUTH DEBATE DEMANDS A STRONG, UNITED, FEDERAL EUROPE

At a youth debate in insert venue and date, Young Europeans reiterated their support for a federal European Constitution. More than insert number young people from all over the region met as part of the project on the Convention "Europe: A Generation Ahead", organised by the Young European Federalists.

The participants discussed the "Future of Europe" and the prospect for a European Federation with names of speakers. Mister/Ms X, function, said "..."

The young participants committed themselves to continuing the debate around Europe, at the local, regional, and European level, in order to inform the citizens and to build support for the work of the Convention. Insert a name from insert town called on the members of the Convention to do the same. "Building Europe must not only be a concern for the traditional Brussels elite, or for a small group of countries", he said. "Building our common European home is a project which concerns all the citizens of Europe".

All the results of this event, as well as upcoming other local debates all over Europe, online discussions and an interactive exhibition will be published online under www.constitutional-convention.net.
